

COMMUNIQUE

Environment Protection (Banning of Plastic Banners) Regulations 2008

In the context of the present electoral campaign, the public is reminded that according to the Environment Protection (Banning of Plastic Banners) Regulations 2008, no person is authorised to display or cause to be displayed any plastic banner including bunting, barricade tape or a flag except for the following:

- (a) barricade tape used by police to cordon off a scene of crime, accident or incident in order to preserve evidence and control access to the site;
- (b) barricade tape used during demolition, excavation or construction works for the safety and security of the public.

The public is also reminded that banners used during the electoral campaign should be collected and sent for recycling at registered recycling facilities. The list of registered recyclers may be accessed from:
